Navigator Steel Siding is a homeowner's best choice. By design, Navigator helps reduce energy costs and improve a home's overall efficiency without sacrificing great curb appeal. A wide range of colors and styles make it easy for homeowners to find a look that fits their personal taste and style. And maintenance is a breeze – just occasional washing keeps this siding looking like new. Navigator Steel Siding lives up to its reputation for resistance to fire, pests and harsh weather, making it a popular choice for anyone seeking attractive, low-maintenance siding with a long life.

You'll never have to sacrifice style for endurance with Navigator Steel Siding. Navigator was created by combining high-tech steel and our proprietary, ultra-durable SMP coating. Navigator steel siding stands up to harsh sunlight, humidity and punishing weather with maintenance-free, lasting beauty.
